DAY 1 - Travelling from Tauranga through the coastal Bay of Plenty, our first stop is at the world famous (in New Zealand) L&P cafe for morning tea. It's our shout and a chance for us to get to know our travelling companions. Continuing north through the 'Big Smoke' of Auckland we make our lunch stop at the iconic Kiwi pub at Puhoi (at your cost).

After lunch we head north on SH1, passing through rolling countryside, farmland and native forests, with our route offering stunning coastal views of the offshore islands. Our destination is Whangarei for our first nights accommodation, but before checking into our hotel we visit the recently opened Hundertwasser Art Centre, an amazing building that showcases the works of Austrian free spirit and artist, Friedensreich Hundertwasser. His ideas of living a life in accordance with the laws of nature, individual creativity, of the greening of cities, of a waste-free society and the restoration of natural cycles have now become a mainstream mantra for those concerned about our impact on our planet.

This evening we will dine together, chance to recount all the things we have seen today.

DAY 2 - After a lovely breakfast we check out of our hotel and continue north to Paihia, on the way making our first stop to visit the Kawiti Caves, located right in the heart of the Waiomio Valley, a scenic valley of lush green forest and unusual rock formations. The Waiomio Glowworm Caves are home to thousands of luminous glow worms and breath taking rock formations. Our guide will lead you through these easily accessed caves and share with you one of New Zealand's natural wonders.

Then on to another must see destination, the famous Kawakawa toilets, one of artist Friedensreich Hundertwasser's unique designs which has brought visitors from around the world to this small Northland town for many years.

We then continue on to the Waitangi Treaty Grounds – New Zealand's most important historic site. Here you can see two museums - Te Rau Aroha which tells the story of the Māori commitment to the armed forces during WW1 and WW2, and Te Kōngahu Museum of Waitangi which weaves together the stories and taonga (treasured objects) bringing to life the history of Waitangi and Aotearoa New Zealand's founding documents. You will also see the carving studio, the Treaty House, traditional Māori waka taua (war canoes) as well as a guided tour, followed by a cultural performance on the Marae.

Before departing Waitangi we have time for lunch (your cost) at the on-site cafe overlooking the bay. After lunch we continue a little way inland to see the Haruru Falls - where the Waitangi River flows over a 5 metre high rock ledge into a large salt-water lagoon. After checking in to our waterfront hotel, the remainder of the afternoon is free for you to relax, browse the shops or take a swim in the hotel pool or sea. This evening we will dine out together at a top local restaurant overlooking the bay.

DAY 4 - Today we leave Paihia and continue north to the Bay of Island's largest town - Kerikeri, on the way stopping to see the Haruru Falls - where the Waitangi River flows over a 5 metre high rock ledge into a large salt-water lagoon. Arriving in Kerikeri, we first visit a very popular place for all visitors - the mouth watering Makana chocolate factory (chocolates and ice-creams to die for!). Time here for a coffee if you wish.

Suitably refreshed its just a short drive through the centre of Kerikeri to another of New Zealand's historic treasures – The Stone Store (New Zealand's oldest stone building) and Kemp House (New Zealand's oldest building). Here we enjoy a guided tour of the Kemp House and have access to the The Stone Store upper levels - both situated in an idyllic location at the head of the tranquil Kerikeri Inlet with lovely gardens and riverside walks.

Leaving Kerikeri we head to another local landmark, Rainbow Falls - a spectacular 27m single vertical cascade as the Kerikeri River flows over a hard basalt layer of rock into the gorge below, the waters spray forming rainbows in the sunlight. Its then just a few minutes drive to our lunch stop (your cost) at a local cafe situated adjacent to a garden centre, both very popular with the locals.

Following lunch we continue north to Taipa which is our base for the next two nights, arriving in time for you to enjoy the resort facilities or walk the golden sand beach opposite our hotel. This evening we will dine at the hotel restaurant overlooking the sea.

DAY 5 - After an early breakfast we depart for Kaitiāia where we join up with a family run tour company for our Cape Reinga adventure. Their specially designed vehicles allow driving on the famous 90 Mile Beach where we visit the Te Paki Dunes - chance to try the sand dune surfing - fun for all ages! (body boards are supplied if you want to try it)

Our tour includes a picnic lunch at a secluded bay on the east coast before we head to the very top of New Zealand at Cape Reinga. Take a walk to marvel at the 360 degree views from the Cape Reinga lighthouse, which has to be one of those bucket list destinations! Please note that the order of the tour depends on the tides, so may change.

Leaving Kaitiāia we head back south to another local icon - dinner at the famous Mangonui Fish Shop. Situated on the waters edge, this stunning location offers a delicious fish n chip supper, including dessert if you want!.

DAY 6 - Today we move across the island to the west coast, where a different pace of life is apparent as we enjoy the sparsely populated Hokianga region. But first we will make a short detour to visit the Butler Point Whaling Museum in Doubtless Bay - the first place in New Zealand where a whaling ship visited back in 1792. The Museum has an interesting collection of whaling artefacts and is set in a stunning location on the shore.

Our most direct route to our next accommodation passes through Waimate North, the location of another significant heritage building - Te Waimate Mission (New Zealand's second oldest building) We include a tour of the mission house and grounds where you will learn of the important early encounters between Māori and Europeans.

Arriving early afternoon at Omapere, we check into our harbour front hotel before joining a local guide to visit the 'Lord of the Forest' – Tane Mahuta, in the Waipoua Forest. This majestic Kauri tree is thought to be up to 2500 years old and is now the largest of the species still standing in New Zealand. A short boardwalk will take us into the forest where our expert local Maori guide will provide insight into the role of the forest in both past and current times, enabling us to understand how important care of our natural environment is to us all. We then return to our hotel where we will dine this evening.

DAY 7 - Departing Omapere for home, more rugged scenery awaits as we head south through the Waipoua Forest to Dargaville and onwards to Matakōhe on the edge of the Kaipara Harbour. The interesting Matakōhe Kauri Museum awaits, and we allow plenty of time to enjoy the detailed displays relating to the kauri timber industry. The on site cafe is your lunch option today. By the time we leave Matakōhe we will have a much better appreciation of Northland life, its history and its people.
